

Code of Ethics/Standards for Conduct

Volunteers for Harris Park Metro District.

All volunteers are responsible for conducting themselves in conformance with this code.

I will be conscious of the fact that everything I do, directly or indirectly, has the potential to reflect upon Harris Park Metropolitan District.

I will conduct myself at all times with openness, forthrightness, and honesty in dealing with people and organizations, both internally and externally.

I will hold myself to the highest possible standard of conduct reflective of the work that I do, striving always to avoid even the appearance of impropriety.

I will treat everyone with dignity, worth, respect, concern, courtesy and fairness.

I will be sensitive to and seek solutions for all instances of discrimination and social injustice that I observe.

I will respect and comply with all applicable laws and regulations.

I will exercise prudent stewardship of all resources.

I will avoid all conflict of interest relationships with board members, staff, suppliers, those we serve, and other organizations with whom I deal, unless disclosed and approved.

I will accept no gifts or favors that might influence the performance of my responsibilities.

I will also adhere to and comply with the defined standards of conduct of my own profession.

Volunteers are prohibited from using or being under the influence of drugs or alcohol while volunteering.
